Description and Current Status

Staff has revised personnel policies entitled Administrative Closing, Definitions, Hiring, and Recruitment for the Board's consideration at the August 10, 2021 meeting.

Administrative Closing – We added the public information phone number and defined what essential employee means.

Definitions – We made clear when overtime occurs for Police and Fire per FLSA guidelines and the 7(k) exceptions for their 28-day cycles.

Hiring – We referenced section 46 of the personnel policies under 5.7 (DMV check)

Recruitment – We updated the sources of recruitment under 4.4 to bring this up to date with how the process is handled currently.

SUBJECT: Administrative Closing Policy	SUPERSEDES: January 1, 2006	DATE ISSUED: January 1, 2006
AUTHORIZATION: Adopted by the Board of Supervisors December 13, 2005; to become effective January 1, 2006

40.1 Administrative Closing Policy

During emergency conditions (e.g. hazardous weather, declared disasters, inadequate work environments, etc.), County offices may be closed at the discretion of the County Administrator. The County Administrator, or designee, will notify the media of such closing and will post a message on the Public information line (804) 733-2659.

Essential employees may be required to work during an administrative closing. Essential employees are those employees who provide services that are critical to the protection of life and property. The loss of any of these essential services would be intolerable in that they could affect the basics of life or safety and the community could not function without such services.

COUNTY OF PRINCE GEORGE PERSONNEL POLICIES Prince George, Virginia	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	Page 1 of 6
	SUPERSEDES: 2.10 dated 12/16/07 September 28, 2011	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2011
SUBJECT: Definitions	AUTHORIZATION: Adopted by the Board of Supervisors August 16, 2011; to become effective August 16, 2011

2.1 Definitions

As used in these policies, unless the context clearly requires otherwise, the following words shall have the meaning herein given them.

2.2 Allocate

The act of assigning each position to its proper classification.

2.3 Anniversary Date

The recurring date of original appointment or the date of promotion, except that such shall be adjusted for suspensions, unauthorized leave of absence without pay, and separation and re-employment.

2.4 Appeal

An application for review of an alleged grievance by disciplinary action.

2.5 Appointment

The offer and acceptance by a person of a position either on a full-time, part-time, temporary or seasonal basis. A temporary appointment shall terminate automatically upon completion of the project necessitating the appointment.

2.6 Class/Classification

A position or group of positions having similar duties and responsibilities, requiring similar qualifications, which can be properly designated by one title indicative of the nature of the work and which carry the same salary range.

2.7 Class Specification

A written statement describing the duties and responsibilities and minimum qualification requirements of a position.

SUBJECT: Definitions	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2011	Page 2 of 6
--------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------

2.8 Continuous Service

Employment in the classified service which is uninterrupted except for authorized leave(s) of absence.

2.9 Demotion

The assignment of an employee to a position in a lower class within the same department, having a lower maximum salary than the class from which the assignment is made.

2.10 Department Director

Department Directors shall be defined as current or future positions carrying the title Department Director as established by the County Board of Supervisors as included on the county's pay plan. All Department Directors are under the supervision of the County Administrator or his/her designee, are "at-will" employees and are "exempt" employees under the FLSA.

2.11 Dismissal

For unremediable lesser offenses, unremedied or repetition of serious offenses, the occurrence of an extremely serious offense, or the demonstrated inability to perform the functions of the position, an employee may be dismissed from County employment.

The act of terminating an employee from employment on the occurrence of an extremely serious offense or after all appropriate disciplinary actions have not improved the performance or behavior of the employee in the manner specified.

2.12 Essential Employee

Essential employee shall be defined as an exempt and/or non-exempt employee who is required to work during an authorized closing for the purpose of providing critical operation/services to include, but not limited to, Police, Fire, Emergency, Communications, Utilities, and Buildings and Grounds. In addition to critical activities, employees in other departments may be required to work during an authorized closing to maintain the minimum level of staff needed to provide necessary services.

2.13 Full-Time Employee

Any employee working a minimum of a 40 hour week in either a regular or probationary position, budgeted on an annual basis.

SUBJECT: Definitions	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2014	Page 3 of 6
--------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------

2.14 Grievance

A grievance shall be a complaint or dispute relative to an employee's employment involving:

1. disciplinary actions, including dismissals, disciplinary demotions and suspensions, provided that dismissals shall be grievable whenever resulting from formal discipline or unsatisfactory job performance;
2. concerns regarding the application of personnel policies, procedures, rules and/or regulations;
3. acts of retaliation for using the grievance procedure or of participation in the grievance of another County employee;
4. complaints of discrimination on the basis of race, color, creed, sex, age, political affiliation, disability, or national origin;
5. acts of retaliation because employee has complied with any law of the U.S. or the Commonwealth, has reported any violation of such law to a governmental authority, has sought any change in the law before the Congress of the U.S. or the General Assembly; and
6. any other actions outlined in the County's Policy and Procedure Manual.

2.15 Immediate Relative

An immediate relative shall be defined as a spouse, parent, step-parent, sibling, step sibling, child, step-child, grandparent, grandchild, guardian, and same relatives of spouse, inclusive of those relationships arising from adoption.

2.16 Layoff

The involuntary, non-disciplinary separation of an employee from employment with the County.

2.17 Leave Without Pay Status

An employee who is not physically at work and is on an approved absence without pay.

2.18 Overtime

SUBJECT: Definitions	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2014	Page 4 of 6
--------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------

Overtime occurs when a non-exempt employee works more than 40 hours within a work week in accordance with State and Federal law. In accordance with FLSA section 7 (k) exceptions, Police overtime is calculated based on 171 hours in a 28-day cycle, and firefighters overtime is calculated based on a 212 hours in a 28-day cycle. –Refer to Section 22 for more information on overtime.

2.19 Part-Time Regular Employee

An employee working no less than 20 hours per week who is paid on an hourly basis for those hours actually worked, in a continuous year-round position, and is entitled to County benefits, as provided for in Section 5.12 herein.

2.20 Paid Status

An employee who is physically at work or is on an approved leave of absence with pay.

2.21 Position

A group of duties assigned to one person or job.

2.22 Probationary Employee

Any employee who is serving a probationary period following original hire, promotion, demotion, or as a result of disciplinary action, prior to being appointed to a regular position and class in the classification and pay plan, with the County Administrator's approval.

2.23 Probationary Period

A period following original hire, promotion, demotion, or as a result disciplinary action whereby the employee's performance is carefully evaluated in order to attain regular status. Provided, however, the probationary period for uniformed police department personnel, required to complete specialized training, shall be during such academy training and one year following the date of graduation from such training academy. At any time during the probationary period, the Department Director, as authorized by the County Administrator, may terminate the employee with or without cause. Any termination prior to expiration of the probationary period shall be final with no right of appeal.

2.24 Promotion

The assignment of an employee to a position in a higher class within the same department, having a higher maximum salary than the position from which the assignment is made.

2.25 Regular Employee

SUBJECT: Definitions	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2011	Page 5 of 6
--------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------

An employee who has been appointed to a regular full-time or part-time position in the classified service in accordance with the provisions of these policies after completing a probationary period.

2.26 Suspension

The removal of an employee from his/her job duties for a period of time as a result of disciplinary action or pending the results of an administrative and/or criminal investigation.

2.27 Temporary Employee

An employee holding a position other than regular, except as provided in the policies, which is of temporary, seasonal, casual, emergency nature or of an undetermined duration. A temporary employee is not entitled to County benefits.

2.28 Temporary Position

All positions that are not designated as regular.

2.29 Transfer

The voluntary or involuntary change of an employee's assignment from one position to another position in a different department.

2.30 Verbal Reprimand

A verbal reprimand given to an employee regarding the need for improving a particular aspect of the employee's job performance, attitude, or behavior which alerts the employee as to how such improvement can be realistically achieved and of possible consequences for further repetition of the unsatisfactory conduct. Verbal reprimands are to be documented and shall be maintained until the next employee performance evaluation or for a period of one year, whichever occurs first; provided, however, that verbal reprimands shall not be maintained in the official personnel file.

2.31 Work Day

The scheduled number of hours an employee is assigned to work.

2.32 Work Period

SUBJECT: Definitions	POLICY NUMBER: 2.1 THROUGH 2.35	DATE ISSUED: September 28, 2014	Page 6 of 6
--------------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------------	-------------

The scheduled number of hours an employee is assigned to work during a work cycle, for which the employee receives a paycheck. This may also be known as the Pay Period.

2.33 Work Week

The scheduled number of hours an employee is assigned to work during a calendar week.

2.34 Written Reprimand

A corrective action taken when the inappropriate performance or behavior of an employee has not satisfactorily improved or when the employee commits a more serious offense. The written reprimand should outline the facts of the offense to include a complete description of the incident(s) of misconduct, specific dates, times, and locations, personnel involved, the policy, procedure, or rule, either actual or implied, that was violated, the actual or potential consequences of the offense, and possible consequences should poor performance or behavior continue.

2.35 Vacancy

A position existing or newly created, which is not occupied, and for which funds are available.

COUNTY OF PRINCE GEORGE PERSONNEL POLICIES Prince George, Virginia	POLICY NUMBER: 5.1 THROUGH 5.20	Page 1 of 9
	SUPERSEDES: March 27, 2018 June 9, 2020	DATE ISSUED: June 9, 2020
SUBJECT: Hiring	AUTHORIZATION: Adopted by the Board of Supervisors; to become effective June 9, 2020

5.1 Application for Employment

All applicants shall be directed to the Human Resources Department to complete the appropriate forms of job-related information relevant to the requirements of the position or vacancy for which they are applying, including a chronological statement of previous employment. References shall be required. Resumes may be added but will not substitute for a completed application form.

5.2 Interviewing

All applications shall be carefully screened and ranked according to previously established qualifications, knowledge, skills, and abilities necessary to perform those duties outlined for the position. Those applicants/applications whose knowledge, abilities, and skills most closely match those needed for the position, shall be invited for a panel interview. Before contacting the candidate for an interview, the names of the candidates selected for an interview will be sent to the Human Resources Department prior to the interviews being scheduled. Human Resources will share that information with the County Administrator who will then give their approval to schedule those interviews. The Director shall verify that each candidate that they would like to interview holds the necessary certifications for the position based on the current job description.

The Department Director with the approval of the County Administrator or designee shall select at least three (3) individuals to serve on the interview panel. The interview panel should be composed of other Department Directors, supervisory staff employed by the County, appropriate professionals, or other individuals outside of County employment.

The interview process must be approved by the Human Resources Department in order to determine and verify that there are no inherent violations of Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) laws. Each panel member will rank the applicant's answers to specific questions on a rating schedule approved by the Department of Human Resources.

SUBJECT: Hiring	POLICY NUMBER: 5.1 THROUGH 5.20	DATE ISSUED: June 9, 2020	Page 2 of 9
---------------------------	-------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------	-------------

When the panel has finished interviewing all of the selected applicants, the three top rated applicants may be invited for a final interview with the Department Director in whose Department the vacant position(s) exists. The final interview will include approved questions, and the applicant(s) shall be ranked and considered in filling existing vacancies at hand. If more than one vacant position exists, the panel may present to the Department Director for consideration up to three applicants for each vacancy.

5.3 Testing

The Department Director may test specific and essential applicant skills that are required to fulfill the duties of the vacancy. Such tests shall be designed by and the parameters for satisfactory completion promulgated by the Director of the affected department, with the approval of the County Administrator. Such tests may be designed for both outside recruitment and promotional purposes. All testing shall be consistent with State and Federal regulations concerning employee selection, including the Americans with Disabilities Act.

5.4 References

The Department Director shall make any necessary contacts for the purpose of checking references on the top qualified candidate(s). References shall preferably be obtained by telephone, but where necessary, written reference checks will be made. Reference checks should be completed before a contingent offer is made. No offer of permanent employment shall be made without approval by the County Administrator.

Falsification or deletion of pertinent information shall result in immediate termination of the interviewing process or of employment.

5.5 Pre-Employment Physical

Refer to Section 7.1.

5.6 Pre-Employment Criminal Background Check

Refer to Prince George County's Code Article 1, 2-1, titled "Employment, licensing, and volunteer service; background check."

5.7 Pre-Employment Department of Motor Vehicle Check

Applicants will be subject to a DMV background check for pre-employment and subsequent checks by the County. Refer to Section 110.1 in the Administrative Policies and Section 46 of the Personnel Policies.

---------------------------	-------------------------------------------	------------------------------------------------	-------------

Regardless whether or not driving a vehicle is an essential function of the position applied for, the results of the DMV background check may be considered as part of the hiring process.

5.8 Selection and Notification of Offer

The Department Director will select the top candidate on job-related criteria. When a finalist is selected, prior to notification ~~to~~ that individual, the Department Director shall submit the hiring memo to the Human Resources Department along with all relevant information about the candidate to obtain approval from the County Administrator to hire the individual. Only after approval has been obtained by the County Administrator, the successful candidate shall be notified and a permanent offer made. Approval from the County Administrator must be obtained before any offer of employment is made for Full- Time, Part-Time Regular and Part-Time Temporary positions. The Department of Human Resources will prepare an offer letter to the selected candidate and send it to the candidate to inform them of their hire date and starting salary and indicating what date and time that they should report to work for orientation.

5.9 Disqualification of Applicants

The County Administrator or Department Director of the concerned department may remove from further consideration, at any time, the application of any applicant who:

1. Does not possess the minimum job-related qualifications,
2. Has made false statements of any material fact or practiced deception in the application,
3. Fails to accept appointment within five (5) days or report for duty within the time prescribed in the offer.

5.10 Notice of Rejection of an Application

Whenever an application or applicant is rejected, notice of such rejection shall be given to the applicant by the County Administrator or designee in written form.

5.11 Application Files

Applications of unsuccessful candidates for a specific opening shall be retained on file with the Human Resources Department and will remain active for a period of twelve (12) months, following the filling of the position for which such application was filed. The applications may be reviewed subsequently for future openings for which the applicant may qualify. After this time period, it will be necessary for the applicant to reapply for future openings.

Applications of candidates, which have been disqualified due to falsification of information or omission of pertinent information or failure to accept appointment within five (5) days or to report for duty within the time prescribed in the offer, shall be entered into a closed file and will not be reconsidered.

5.12 Reporting for Duty

A new employee shall be instructed to report directly to their assigned Department Director on the first day of work unless their Director has instructed them to come directly to Human Resources for new hire orientation.

5.13 Hiring Part-time Regular Employees

A continuous year-round position utilized for no less than 20 hours per week and paid on an hourly basis for hours actually worked shall be designated a part-time regular employee when the position has been included on the approved position control chart.

Part-time regular employees shall be recruited, hired, evaluated, and reviewed on their performance in the same manner as full-time employees. Part-time regular employees shall also be eligible for any special annual salary increase afforded to full-time employees, by the Board of Supervisors; however, this shall be inapplicable to any position for which the County is nothing more than the fiscal agent.

Part-time regular employees are eligible to receive one half of the County's contribution for health insurance premiums, provided the employee is responsible for the remainder of the premium. Sick, annual and holiday leave shall be granted in accordance with section 24 of the personnel policies. Part-Time Regular employees shall be approved by the County Administrator prior to a job offer being made in accordance with section ~~5.87~~ of this policy.

5.14 Hiring Temporary Employees

A temporary employee may be recruited, as approved by the Department of Human Resources, to assist in the handling of workloads of unknown duration, seasonal employment, casual employment, or employment of an emergency nature, for an indefinite time period, or for completion of a specific task or project. Temporary employees shall be approved by the County Administrator prior to a job offer being made in accordance with section ~~5.87~~ of this policy.

Temporary employees shall not be entitled to other benefits, offered to full-time employees. A temporary employee shall not be entitled to County fringe benefits unless specifically authorized by the County Administrator in the job creation process.

---------------------------	-------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------	-------------

If a temporary employee gains regular full-time or part-time employment with the County, the employee shall be considered as a new hire the date the personnel action is effected, unless otherwise designated by the County Administrator.

5.15 Hiring Former Employees

A former employee may be rehired providing his/her qualifications meet the requirements of the vacant position, and he/she was an employee in good standing at the time of separation.

The County Administrator or designee shall review the personnel folder of a former employee prior to the actual job offer to determine whether to rehire or not based on previous employment record.

A former employee who is rehired shall be processed in the same manner as a new hire. For purposes of computing benefits due, the employee shall be considered as a new appointment and shall serve the required probationary period.

5.16 Reinstatement of Former Employees

A former employee of the County may be returned to employment in the same capacity following a separation of no more than thirty-one consecutive calendar days. The employee may return to duty in the same position and class, subsequent to approval of the Department Head and County Administrator, provided the position has not been filled. Anniversary dates for all reinstated employees will remain unchanged, except when a reinstated employee has missed one or more full pay periods prior to reinstatement, in which case the anniversary date will be amended to reflect the days missed to the nearest full pay period. All time worked previous to reinstatement shall be counted towards the probationary period and annual leave accrual rate; however, employees shall not accrue leave for actual time missed prior to reinstatement.

5.17 Hiring of Auxiliary Police Officers

Any auxiliary police officer who applies for the position of full-time police officer shall not be required to participate in the complete application process; they will be exempt from the written exam, physical agility tests, and/or the oral interview. The auxiliary police officer may submit an application anytime during the recruitment period. The application shall be reviewed by the Chief of Police, and if approved a conditional offer of employment shall be given to the auxiliary police officer. The conditional offer will include a thorough background check, psychological exam, physical exam, drug screen, and polygraph exam. The auxiliary police officer shall pass all exam phases required by the conditional offer of employment to be considered for full-time employment with the Police Department.

5.18 Modification of Part-time/Full-time Status

Upon request of the Department Director, with approval of the County Administrator, an employee's status may be decreased to part-time. An increase from part-time to an existing vacant full time status must be approved by the County Administrator and, at minimum, advertised internally for 10 days to allow all interested parties to apply.

Employees may also request a change in status, and such request would be subject to the approval of the Department Director and the County Administrator. All changes in status are subject to budgetary and position control constraints of the Department.

5.19 Internships

Prince George County is committed to promoting the development of the future workforce. County sponsored internships (both paid and unpaid) are initiated to provide high school to graduate level students with the opportunity to work alongside County professionals and gain hands-on work experience. Compliance with this policy is necessary to ensure consistent implementation across County departments. This policy does not include the summer Youth Workforce Program.

Definitions

- A. Intern: A student or recent graduate who works for a specified, limited amount of time to gain work experience and exposure.
- B. Intern I: An intern who is currently enrolled in or has just completed high school.
- C. Intern II: An intern who has (1) successfully completed a minimum of one full-time semester and (2) is currently enrolled in a college, technical, vocational, trade school, advanced degree program, or other higher educational institution.
- D. Internship: Formal program to provide practical experience in an occupation or profession.

5.20 Procedures for Internships

SUBJECT: Hiring	POLICY NUMBER: 5.1 THROUGH 5.20	DATE ISSUED: June 9, 2020	Page 7 of 9
---------------------------	-------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------	-------------

 - a. Summer – Begin no sooner than May 1 and conclude no later than August 31.
 - b. Fall – Begin no sooner than September 1 and conclude no later than December 31.
 - c. Spring – Begin no sooner than January 1 and conclude no later than April 30.
3. The internship must be at least four weeks in duration and no more than four months.

D. Assignments – The respective hiring Manager is responsible for identifying specific projects that provide the intern with opportunities for exposure to real work situations.

1. Project assignment should include challenging and rewarding work exposure opportunities.
2. Hiring Managers should provide interns with constructive feedback related to their performance.
3. Hiring Managers assume responsibility for the final work products completed by the interns.

E. Acknowledgements – Selected interns are responsible for participating in new hire orientation the first day of their internship.

1. Interns must complete all applicable employment forms including but not limited to the I-9 form and payroll documents.
2. Interns must acknowledge receipt of and agree to abide by all County personnel policies and procedures.
3. Interns who violate any provisions of this or any other County policy are subject to the internship being immediately concluded at the sole discretion of the County without further payments.

----------------------------------	--------------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------	--------------------
