RESOLUTION IN SUPPORT OF CHANGING THE NAME OF FORT LEE TO FORT ARTHUR J. GREGG

WHEREAS, Virginia Congressman Donald McEachin has written a letter to the chairperson of the Defense Department's Naming Commission to change Fort Lee to Fort Gregg in honor of former Lt. Gen. Arthur J. Gregg; and

WHEREAS, Gregg began his 35-year career in 1946 at then-Camp Lee and retired in 1981 as the highest-ranked minority general and the second-highest ranked Black servicemember at that time; and

WHEREAS, In his letter dated Aug. 16, 2021, McEachin said Gregg "broke down racial and institutional barriers" during his career; and

WHEREAS, Congressman McEachin has put together an informal committee of community leaders from his district to discuss the possibility of placing Gregg's name on the post and that panel agreed with the choice; and

WHEREAS, Gregg spent his entire career in the Quartermaster and Logistics arenas. During the Vietnam War, he commanded the largest Quartermaster battalion in that country. He also served as director of logistics and organization for the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff. He retired as the Army's deputy chief of staff for logistics. Now 93, Gregg serves on several boards and commissions in the private sector. Last September, the Army Quartermaster Museum unveiled an exhibit spotlighting Gregg's career.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of the Supervisors of the County of Prince George this 14th day of September, 2021, hereby supports Congressman Donald McEachin in his efforts to change the name of Fort Lee to Fort Gregg in honor of former Lt. Gen. Arthur J. Gregg.
